

PROGRAM IN NATIONAL SECURITY STUDIES (PINSS)

Certificates in National Security Studies—Graduate & Undergraduate

Providing learning opportunities in public policy, national security & citizenship studies to students, faculty and the community.

The Jack D. Gordon Institute for Public Policy & Citizenship Studies is proud to offer Undergraduate and Graduate Certificates in National Security Studies, offering a multi-disciplinary approach to understanding national security and human rights in the 21st century. These certificates are the perfect compliment to a student's discipline or major area of study. Certificate requirements include completion of 18 credits of required coursework, as well as demonstrated language proficiency. The PINSS program also sponsors speakers on National Security related topics, summer language scholarships and assistance with SOUTHCOM and other internship opportunities.
