

The Churches and the Holocaust

A Lecture by Dr. Victoria J. Barnett

Friday, February 29, 9:00 am in HLS570
FIU University Park Campus

How did the Christian Churches, inside and outside the Nazi state, respond to the Holocaust as it was happening? To what extent do they bear responsibility for their actions or inactions? This special guest lecture will unravel one aspect of the complex web of Jewish-Christian relations during the Holocaust.

Victoria J. Barnett is Director of Church Relations at the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies. She is also one of the general editors of the Dietrich Bonhoeffer Works, the English translation series of Bonhoeffer's complete works being published by Fortress Press, and has written extensively on the Protestant churches during the Holocaust.

This program is co-organized by FIU's Judaic Studies Program and by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum's Center for Advanced Holocaust Studies. The organizers thank Mr. & Mrs. Robert Jaffee and Deanie and Jay Stein and the Morris Family Foundation for their support of this program. □
